A’ sgrìobhadh mu litreachas

Writing about literature

Tha an sgeulachd èibhinn, ach tha i duilich aig an aon àm... The story is funny and sad at the same time, particularly when we think of what Seòras does with his life. Write a review of the story, highlighting the author’s storytelling methods. How does the author manage to persuade the reader to feel sorry for Seòras when he doesn’t seem to feel too sorry for himself?

Think about the way in which the writer brings his characters to life. How does he succeed in showing us the kind of people they are?

Think about the way in which the author passes on information to the reader in the story. For example, his opinion of the Guaderini family, the changes which took place in the café, how willing Seòras is to please everyone and how little he actually achieves in his life. How successful is the author in putting the story together? Is there a message in the story for us all? Say what the message is, if you can.

Earrann 2*Part 2*

Think of a job you'd enjoy doing. What job is it? Why would you enjoy it? Where will your job be based? Why would you choose to live there? What do you do in your job every day? What is the pay like? - Fad mo bheatha, bha mi airson a bhith nam...
- Nuair a dh'fhàg mi an sgoil, chaidh mi a...
